BEAVERIAN
1966

On the evening of Friday, June 24, 1966, I had the honour and pleasure of giving the Commencment Address at the Beaver River Central School at Beaver Falls, N.Y. This was the penultimate year of my active career on the Faculty of Lehigh University. On these pages are shown the pictures of the class which I addressed on that occasion. Marion and Elfriede Van Arnam were sitting together in my audience. It was the last time that each visited the Beaver Falls High School. Elfriede died on Feb. 13, 1967 and Marion died on June 3, 1970.

The class sat behind me on the stage of the old auditorium, or gymnasium as it then was. There was no formal receiving line at the informal reception afterward in the school cafeteria. Of particular note among the graduating class is Ronald Gordon Hack who was killed in a later year in the war in Vietnam. His grandparents were present that evening of the commencement and I mentioned his grandmother by name. Erling Hansen was about the only student among the graduates who came up after the exercises and spoke to me personally. He graduated from Hamilton College in June four years later.

"Sic transit gloria mundi!"

This book was presented to me in the summer of 1970 by my friend, Miss Pearl Zehr, a primary teacher at the school.

Ask not what your country can do for you—Ask what you can do for your country.

YASUO SAITO

I was born in Okayama, Japan, on January 5, 1948. Okayama is located about five hundred miles southwest of Tokyo and about one hundred miles east of Hiroshima. It is on the coast of Seto Inland Sea—one of the most scenic places in Japan. These three cities are on the same island—Honshu, which is the largest of the four main islands.

My father teaches history and geography at a high school. I have three brothers and one sister. Two of my brothers finished college and are working, one for an electric company and the other for a textile company. The other brother is a sophomore at a university in Tokyo and my sister is a high school sophomore.

In Japan we use the tri-semester system, and every school year starts in April. Everyone begins the study of English in the seventh grade. English is the only foreign language taught until college. Since I have finished only the first semester of my senior year in Japan, I shall complete the other two-thirds in order to prepare for college upon my return to Japan in July.

I have had a great experience at Beaver River Central School. I have learned many things which I could not have learned in Japan, such as Latin and American History. Football and dancing are new interests which I have acquired in the United States.

Everyone has been very kind to me, which has has made my stay here more enjoyable.
